Trentham run

Sunday,
30 April, 2017

A day-long run that skirts the north-western surrounds of Melbourne with some lovely country side roads and views.

This run covers some great roads, new and old, covering areas such as Kinglake national park, Cobaws and Wombat state forests, and skirts the Brisbane Ranges national park.

We start at Whittlesea, plan to lunch around Trentham and finish up near Melton.

- Starting point: Yan Yean Reservoir Park (Melway ref 391 D1).
Enter the park off Recreation Rd, turn right to go through the main gates and then turn left to enter the picnic area. The car park and toilet block are just inside the picnic area.
- At: 9.30am for a 10am start
- Bring: Picnic lunch and/or buy something around the Trentham area, where we plan to stop for lunch.
- RSVP: Not essential but certainly appreciated for planning
- Contact: John & Katrina Palmer: SMS via 0428 306 392 (ah) or email: palmerjk@optusnet.com.au
