Run to a private car museum in Kyneton

Saturday, 2 September 2017

Note:
Saturday
run

of Victoria & Tasmania

We're driving to Kyneton to visit a private car museum where we'll see the very first and the very last Valiant ever made – along with one of every other model Valiant in between.

Ivan Smith has a passion for collecting other classic vehicles as well.

Our hosts, Ivan and June, will greet us on arrival with a morning tea. Entry is by voluntary donation. All funds the Smiths raise by opening their private museum are used to support their orphanage charity work in East Timor.

This is something special and a very worthwhile cause. It's not to be missed!

Starting point: Coles Express Bunker Hill at 1175 Hume Fwy, Donnybrook
(near the corner of Donnybrook Road)

At: 9am for a 9.30am start

Bring: BYO lunch – BBQs available.

RSVP: Wednesday, 30 August. Numbers are needed for morning tea catering

Contact: Geoff: 0409 039 867 (ah) | groche@iprimus.com.au

THIS VALIANT IS THE VERY LAST CHRYSLER PRODUCED
IN AUSTRALIA, SEPT. 1981
